

(Unofficial Translation)
The Declaration of the Ministry of Labour on the extension of due date of contribution filing and payment via electronic systems (e – Payment) B.E. 2560 (2017)

---

As electronic system has been applied in the nation's economic and social development to gain competitiveness and acceptance of other civilised nations, it is necessary to improve the efficiency of governmental organization's electronic service, as well as to facilitate the ease of doing business of employer and to protect the interest of employee in accessing social security's benefits. Therefore, the extension of due date of contribution filing and payment via electronic systems (e – Payment) is deemed appropriate.

By virtue of Section 84/2 of the Social Security Act B.E. 2533 (1999) amended by the Order of the Head of the National Council for Peace and Order No. 21/2560 on Amendment of Laws to Facilitate the Ease of Doing Business ordered on 4 April B.E. 2560 (2017), the Minister of Labour, with the approval of the Cabinet, hereby issued the following declaration:

1. Extend the due date of contribution filing and payment, for the employer who files and pays the contribution in compliance with section 47 of the Social Security Act B.E. 2533 (1999) amended by the Social Security Act (the fourth edition) B.E. 2558 (2015) via electronic systems (e – Payment), for another 7 working days starting from the day after the fifteenth day of the month following the month of deduction.

The execution of the first paragraph shall be applied to the contribution filling and payment of salaries of twelve months starting from the month this Declaration come into force.

2. This Declaration shall come into force on 7 May B.E. 2560 (2017).

Declared on 5 May B.E. 2560 (2017)

General Sirichai Distakul
Minister of Labour